CAPITAL

SHARES

Capital	3. The Authorized Share Capital of the Company shall be such amount as may be authorized from time to time.
Register of Members and Debentureholders	4. The Company shall cause to be kept a Register of Members, an Index of Members, a Register of Debentureholders and an Index of Debentureholders in accordance with Sections 150, 151 and 152 of the Act.
Inspection of Register of Members, Debentureholders, etc.	5. The Register of Members, the Index of Members, the Register and Index of Debentureholders, copies of all Annual Returns prepared under Section 159 of the Act, together with the copies of certificates and documents required to be annexed thereto under Section 161 of the Act shall, except when the Register of Members or Debentureholders is closed under the provisions of the Act or these presents, be open to inspection of any Member or Debentureholder gratis and to inspection of any other person on payment of such sum as may be prescribed by the Act for each inspection. Any such Member or person may take extracts therefrom on payment of such sum as may be prescribed by the Directors.

6. The Company shall send to any Member, Debentureholder or other person on request, a copy of the Register of Members, the Index of Members, the Register and Index of Debentureholders or any part thereof required to be kept under the Act, on payment of such sum as may be prescribed by the Act. The copy shall be sent within a period of 10 days, exclusive of non-working days, commencing on the day next after the day on which the requirement is received by the Company.

The Company to send extract of Register etc.

7. The Directors shall observe the restriction as to allotment contained in Sections 69, 70 and 73 of the Act.

Restriction on allotment

8. Subject to the provisions of the Act and these presents, the shares in the capital of the Company for the time being (including any shares forming part of any increased capital of the Company) shall be under the control of the Directors who may allot or otherwise dispose off the same or any of them to such persons in such proportions and on such terms and conditions and either at a premium or at par or (subject to compliance with the provisions of Section 79 of the Act) at a discount and at such times as they may from time to time think fit and proper.

Shares at the disposal of the Directors

Provided that option or right to call of shares shall not be given to any person except with the sanction of the Company in General Meeting.

9. Subject to the provisions of the Act and these presents, the Directors may allot and issue shares in the capital of the Company as payment or part payment for any property sold or goods transferred or machinery supplied or for services rendered to the Company and any shares which may be so allotted may be issued as fully paid up or partly paid up and if so issued shall be deemed to be fully paid up shares or partly paid up shares.

Directors may allot shares as fully paid-up or partly paid-up

10. Any unclassified shares (whether forming part of the original capital or any increased capital of the Company) may, subject to the provisions of the Act and these presents, be issued either with the sanction of the Company in General Meeting or by the Directors and upon such terms and conditions and with such rights and privileges annexed thereto as by the General Meeting sanctioning the issue of such shares be directed and, if no such direction be given, and in all other cases, as the Directors shall determine; and in particular such shares may be issued with a preferential or qualified right to dividends and in distribution of the assets of the Company and any preference shares may be issued subject to the provisions of Section 80 of the Act, provided however that:-

Unclassified shares

(1) no shares shall be issued pursuant to this Article without the sanction of the Company in General Meeting unless they shall, subject to the provisions of Section 81 of the Act, be offered to the persons who are holders of equity shares of the Company in proportion, as nearly as circumstances admit to the capital paid up on those equity shares and

(2) no unclassified shares shall, without the sanction of the Company in General Meeting, be issued as preference shares if the aggregate nominal amount of issued preference shares would thereby exceed the aggregate nominal amount of the issued equity shares of the Company.

10 (a) The Company shall have the power to issue Cumulative and/or Non-Cumulative and/or Non-Convertible and/or partly or fully Convertible Preference Shares which are eligible to be converted partly and/or fully into equity shares of the Company as a part of its authorized share capital in the manner permissible under the Act and relevant SEBI Regulations. The Board may subject to the provisions of the Act, exercise such powers in any manner as it may think fit and provide for the conversion of Preference Shares into Equity on such terms and conditions including payment of the Dividend and the right to convert at premium or otherwise as may be deemed appropriate.

Issue of Preference shares

11. Any application signed by or on behalf of an applicant for shares in the Company, followed by an allotment of any shares therein, shall be an acceptance of shares within the meaning of these presents; and every person who thus or otherwise accept any shares and whose name is on the Register shall for the purpose of these presents be a Member.

Acceptance of shares

Deposit and calls,
etc. to be a debt
payable immediately

12. The money, (if any), which the Directors shall, on the allotment of any shares being made by them, require or direct to be paid by way of deposit, call or otherwise, in respect of any shares allotted by them, shall, immediately on the insertion of the name of the allottee in the Register of Members as the name of the holder of such shares, become a debt due to and recoverable by the Company from the allottee thereof, and shall be paid by him accordingly.

Instalments on shares

13. If, by the conditions of allotment of any share, the whole or part of the amount or issue price thereof shall be payable by instalments, every such instalment shall, when due, be paid to the Company by the person who, for the time being and from time to time, shall be the registered holder of the share or his legal representative.

Calls on shares of the same class to be on uniform basis

14. Where any calls for further share capital are made on shares, such calls shall be made on a uniform basis on all shares falling under the same class. For the purposes of this Article, shares of the same nominal value on which different amounts have been paid up shall not be deemed to fall under the same class.

Company not bound to recognise any interest in shares other than that of the registered holders

15. Save as herein otherwise provided, the Company shall be entitled to treat the person whose name appears on the Register of Members as the holder of any share as the absolute owner thereof and accordingly shall not (except as ordered by a Court of competent jurisdiction or as by law required) be bound to recognise any benami, trust or equity or equitable, contingent or other claim to or interest in such share on the part of any other person whether or not it shall have express or implied notice thereof.

Company's funds may not be applied in purchase of or lent on shares of the Company

16. Except to the extent permitted by Section 77 of the Act, no part of the funds of the Company shall be employed in the purchase of or lent on the security of the shares of the Company,

Liability of Members

17. Every member or his heirs, executors or administrators shall pay to the Company the portion of the capital represented by his share or shares, which may for the time being remain unpaid thereon, in such amounts at such time or times and in such manner as the Board of Directors shall, from time to time, require or fix for the payment thereof.

Trusts not

18. Except as ordered by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction or as provided by the Act, no notice of any trust, expressed or implied or constructive, shall be entered on the Register of Members or of debentureholders of the Company.

UNDERWRITING COMMISSION

Commission for placing shares

19. The Company may at any time pay a commission to any person for subscribing or agreeing to subscribe (whether absolutely or conditionally) for any shares, debentures or debenture stock or any other security of the Company or for procuring or agreeing to procure subscriptions (whether absolute or conditional) for any shares, debentures or debenture stock or any other security of the Company but so that if the commission in respect of shares shall be paid or payable out of capital the statutory conditions and requirements shall be observed and complied with and the amount or rate of commission shall not exceed the rates prescribed by the Act. The commission may be paid or satisfied in cash or in shares, debentures or debenture stock of the Company.

CERTIFICATES

20. The certificate of the title of shares shall be issued under the Seal of the Company and shall bear the signatures of two Directors or persons acting on behalf of the Directors under a duly registered Power of Attorney and the Secretary or some other person appointed by the Board for the purpose. The certificate of such shares shall be delivered within 3 months after the allotment or within 1 month after application for the registration of the transfer of such shares as the case may be unless the conditions of issue of the share otherwise provide. Provided always that notwithstanding anything contained in these Articles, the certificate of the title to share may be executed and issued in accordance with such other provisions of the Act or Rules made thereunder, as may be in force for the time being and from time to time.

Certificates how to be issued

21. Every Member shall be entitled without payment to one certificate for all the shares of each class or denomination registered in his name or, if the Directors so approve (upon paying such fee or fees or at the discretion of the Directors without payment of fees as the Directors may from time to time determine) to several certificates each for one or more shares of each class. Every certificate of shares shall specify the number of the shares in respect of which it is issued and the amount paid thereon and shall be in such form as the Directors shall prescribe or approve. Where a member has transferred a part of the shares comprised in his holding he shall be entitled to a certificate for the balance without charge.

Member's right
to Certificates

Notwithstanding anything contained herein above, the Board may in its absolute discretion refuse applications for the sub-division or consolidation of share certificates, debenture or bond certificates, into denomination of less than the marketable lot except when such sub-division or consolidation is required to be made to comply with a statutory provision or on order of a competent Court of Law.

"Share/Debenture Certificates shall be issued in marketable lots and where share/debenture certificates are issued for either more or less than marketable lots, sub-division/consolidation into marketable lots shall be done free of charge."

"No fee shall be charged for issue of new share/debenture certificates in replacement of those which are old, decrepit, worn out or where the pages on the reverse for recording transfers have been fully utilised."

22 (1) A certificate may be renewed or a duplicate of a certificate may be issued if such certificate(a) is proved to have been lost or destroyed; or (b) having been defaced or mutilated or torn, is surrendered to the Company or (c) has no further space on the back thereof for endorsement of transfer.

As to Issue of new certificate in place of one defaced, lost or destroyed

(2) The manner of issue or renewal of a certificate or issue of a duplicate thereof, the form of a certificate (original or renewed) or of a duplicate thereof, the particulars to be entered in the Register of Members or in the Registers of renewed or duplicate certificates, the form of such Registers, the fee on payment of which, the terms and conditions on which a certificate may be renewed or a duplicate thereof may be issued, shall be such as prescribed by the Companies (Issue of Share Certificates) Rules, 1960 or any other Rules in substitution or modification thereof.

CALLS

23. The Directors may, from time to time, make such calls as they think fit upon the Members in respect of all moneys unpaid on the shares held by them respectively, and not by the conditions of allotment thereof made payable at fixed times, and each Member shall pay the amount of every call so made on him to the person and at the times and places appointed by the Directors. A call may be made payable by instalments.

Calls

Call to date from resolution

24. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Directors authorising such call was passed and may be made payable by Members on the Register of Members on such date or at the discretion of the Directors on such subsequent date as shall be fixed by the Directors.

Notice of call

25. Not less than 30 days' notice of every call shall be given specifying the time of payment provided that before the time for payment of such call the Directors may by notice in writing to the Members revoke the same.

Directors may extend time

26. The Directors may, from time to time and at their discretion, extend the time fixed for the payment of any call and may extend such time as to all or any of the Members who, from residence at a distance or other cause, the Directors may deem entitled to such extension, but no Member shall be entitled to such extension save as a matter of grace and favour.

Liability of joint-holders

27. The Joint-holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect thereof.

Amount payable at fixed time or by instalments as calls

28. If by the terms of issue of any share or otherwise any amount is made payable at any fixed time or by instalments at fixed times, whether on account of the amount of the share or by way of premium, every such amount or instalments shall be payable as if it were a call duly made by the Directors and of which due notice has been given and all the provisions herein contained in respect of calls shall relate to such amount or instalment accordingly.

When interest on call or instalment payable

29. If the sum payable in respect of any call or instalment be not paid on or before the day appointed for payment thereof the holders for the time being or allottee of the share in respect of which a call shall have been made or the instalment shall be due shall pay interest on the same at such rate as the Directors shall fix, from time to time, from the day appointed for the payment thereof to the time of actual payment, but the Directors may waive payment of such interest wholly or in part.

Partial payment not to preclude forfeiture

30. Neither a judgement nor a decree in favour of the Company for calls or other moneys due in respect of any shares nor any part payment or satisfaction thereunder nor the receipt by the Company of a portion of any money which shall, from time to time, be due from any Member in respect of any shares either by way of principal or interest nor any indulgence granted by the Company in respect of payment of any money shall preclude the forfeiture of such shares as herein provided.

Payment in anticipation of calls may carry interest

31. The Directors may, if they think fit, receive from any Member willing to advance the same, all or any part of the moneys due upon the shares held by him beyond the sums actually called for, and upon the moneys so paid in advance or so much thereof as from time to time exceeds the amount of the calls then made upon the shares in respect of which such advance has been made the company may pay interest at such rate as the Member paying such sum in, advance and the Directors agree upon, and the Director may at any time repay the amount so advanced upon giving to such member 1 months' notice in writing.

"Money paid in advance of calls shall not in respect thereof confer a right to dividend or to participate in the profits of the Company."

32. No Member shall be entitled to receive any dividend or to exercise any privilege as a Member until he shall have paid all calls for the time being due and payable on every share held by him, whether alone or jointly with any person, together with interest and expenses, if any.

Member not entitled to privileges of membership until all calls are paid

33. If any Member fails to pay the whole or any part of any call or instalment or any money due in respect of any shares either by way of principal or interest on or before the day appointed for the payment of the same the Directors may at any time thereafter during such time as the call or instalment or any part thereof or other moneys remain unpaid or a judgement or decree in respect thereof remains unsatisfied in whole or in part serve a notice on such Member or on the person (if any) entitled to the share by transmission requiring him to pay such call or instalment or such part thereof or other moneys as remain unpaid together with any interest that may have accrued and all expenses (legal or otherwise) that may have been paid or incurred by the Company by reason of such non-payment.

If call or instalment not paid, notice must be given

34. The notice shall name a day not being less than 14 days from the date of the notice and the place or places on and at which such call or instalment or such part or other monies as aforesaid and such interest and expenses as aforesaid are to be paid. The notice shall also state that in the event of non-payment at or before the time and at the place appointed the share in respect of which the call was made or instalment is payable will be liable to be forfeited.

Form of Notice

35. If the requisitions of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any of the shares in respect of which such notice has been given may at any time thereafter before payment of all calls or instalments, interest and expenses or the money due in respect thereof, be forfeited by a resolution of the Directors to that effect. Such forfeiture shall include all dividends declared in respect of the forfeited shares and not actually paid before the forfeiture subject to provisions of the Act.

In default of payment shares to be forfeited

36. When any share shall have been so forfeited an entry of the forfeiture with the date thereof shall be made in the Register of Members.

Entry of forfeiture on Register of Members

37. Any share so forfeited shall be deemed to be the property of the Company and may be sold, reallocated or otherwise disposed off either to the original holder thereof or to any other person upon such terms and in such manner as the Directors shall think fit.

Forfeited shares to be property of the Company and may be sold etc.

38. The Directors may at any time before any share so forfeited shall have been sold, reallocated or otherwise disposed off annul the forfeiture thereof upon such conditions as they think fit.

Power to annul forfeiture

39. Any Member whose shares have been forfeited shall, notwithstanding the forfeiture, be liable to pay and shall forthwith pay to the Company all calls, instalments, interests, expenses and other moneys owing upon or in respect of such shares at the time of the forfeiture together with interest thereon from the time of the forfeiture until payment at such rate as may be prescribed by the Directors and the Director's may enforce the payment of the whole or a portion thereof if they think fit but, shall not be under any obligation to do so.

Shareholder still liable to pay money owing at time of forfeiture and interest

Company's lien on shares

40. The Company shall have no lien on its fully paid shares. In the case of partly paid up shares the Company shall have a first and paramount lien only for all moneys called or payable at a fixed time in respect of such shares. Any such lien shall extend to all dividends from time to time declared in respect of such shares. Unless otherwise agreed the registration of transfer of shares shall operate as a waiver of the Company's lien, if any, on such shares. The Directors may at any time declare any shares wholly or in part to be exempt from the provisions in this clause.

As to enforcing lien by sale

41. For the purpose of enforcing such lien the Directors may sell the shares subject thereto in such manner as they think fit, but no sale shall be made unless some sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable nor until notice in writing of the intention to sell shall have been served on such Member or the person (if any) entitled by transmission to the shares and default shall have been made by him in payment of the sum presently payable for 7 days after such notice.

Application of proceeds of sale

42. The net proceeds of any such sale after payment of the costs of such sale shall be applied in or towards the satisfaction of the debt or liability in respect whereof the lien exists so far as the same is presently payable and the residue (if any) entitled by transmission to the shares so hold.

Certificate of forfeiture

43. A certificate in writing under the hands of any Director, Manager or the Secretary of the Company that the call in respect of a share was made, and that the forfeiture of the share was made by a resolution of the Directors to that effect, shall be conclusive evidence of the fact stated therein as against all persons entitled to such share.

Title of purchaser and allottee of forfeited share

44. The company may receive the consideration, if any, given for the share on any sale, reallocation or other disposition thereof and the person to whom such share is sold, reallocated or disposed of may be registered as the holder of the share and shall not be bound to see to the application of the consideration, if any, nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, sale reallocation or other disposal of the share and the remedy of any person aggrieved by the sale shall be in damages only and against the Company exclusively.

Application of forfeiture provisions

45. The provisions of the Articles as to the forfeiture shall apply in the case of non-payment of any sum which by terms of issue of a share become payable at a fixed time, as if the same had been payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

TRANSFER AND TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

Transfer not to be registered except on production of instrument of transfer

46. The Company shall not register a transfer of shares in, or debentures of, the Company, unless in accordance with the provisions of Section 108 of the Act a proper instrument of transfer duly stamped and executed by or on behalf of the transferor and by or on behalf of the transferee and specifying the name, address and occupation, if any, of the transferee has been delivered to the Company alongwith the certificate relating to the shares or debentures, or if no such certificate is in existence, alongwith the letter of allotment of the shares or debentures;

Provided that where on an application in writing made to the Company by the transferee and bearing the stamp required for an instrument of transfer, it is provided to the satisfaction of the Board of Directors that the instrument of transfer signed by or on behalf of the transferor and by or on behalf of the transferee has been lost, the Company may register the transfer on such terms as to indemnity as the Board may think fit;

Provided further that nothing in this Article shall prejudice any power of the Company to register as shareholder or debentureholder any person to whom the right to any shares in, or debentures of, the Company has been transmitted by operation of law.

47. A transfer of shares or other interest in the Company of a deceased member thereof made by legal representative shall, although the legal representative is not himself a Member, be as valid as if he had been a Member at the time of the execution of the instrument of transfer.

Transfer by Legal representatives

48. (a) An application for the registration of a transfer of any share or shares may be made either by the transferor or by the transferee.

Application for transfer

(b) Where the application is made by the transferor and relates to partly paid up shares, the transfer shall not be registered, unless the Company gives notice of the application to the transferee and the transferee takes no objection to the transfer within two weeks from the receipt of the notice.

(c) For the purpose of sub-article(b), notice to the transferee shall be deemed to have been duly given if it is despatched by prepaid registered post to the transferee at the address given in the instrument of transfer, and shall be deemed to have been duly delivered at the time which it would have been delivered in the ordinary course of post.

49. Nothing in these presents shall prejudice the powers of the Company to refuse to register the transfer of any shares.

Company's power to refuse transfer

50. The instrument of transfer of any shares shall be in writing in the prescribed form and in accordance with Section 108 of the Act.

Form of transfer

51. The transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of such share until the name of the transferee is entered into the Register of Members in respect thereof.

Transferor, liable until the transferee entered on

52. Notwithstanding anything contained in its Articles or in Section 82 or Section 111 of the Companies Act, 1956 (1 of 1956), but subject to other provisions of this section, a Company may refuse to register the transfer of any of its securities in the name of the transferee on any one or more of the following grounds and on no other ground, namely:

Directors may refuse to register transfer

a) that the instrument of transfer is not proper or has not been duly stamped and executed or that the certificate relating to the security has not been delivered to the Company or that any other requirement under the law relating to registration of such transfer has not been complied with;

b) that the transfer of the security is in contravention of any law or rules made thereunder or any administered instructions of any law or rules made thereunder or any administered instructions or conditions of listing agreement laid down in pursuance of such laws or rules;

c) that the transfer of the security is likely to result in such change in the composition of the Board of Directors as would be prejudicial to the interests of the Company or to the public interest; and

d) that the transfer of the security is prohibited by any order of any court, tribunal or other authority under any law for the time being in force

Notice of refusal to transferee and transferor

53. If the Company refuses to register the transfer of any shares it shall within 1 month from the date on which the instrument of transfer is delivered to the Company send to the transferee and the transferor notice of the refusal.

No transfer to minor etc.

54. No transfer shall be made to the person who is of unsound mind.

Custody of transfer

55. The instrument of transfer shall after registration be retained by the Company and shall remain in its custody. All the instruments of transfer which the Directors may decline to register shall on demand be returned to the persons depositing the same. The Directors may cause to be destroyed all transfer deeds lying with the Company after such period as they may determine.

Closure of Transfer Books

56. The Directors shall have power on giving 7 days' notice by advertisement as required by Section 154 of the Act to close the transfer books of the Company for such period or period of time not exceeding in the whole 45 days in each year but not exceeding 30 days at a time as to them may seem fit.

Title to shares of deceased holder

57. The executors or administrators of a deceased Member or a holder of a Succession Certificate or other legal representation in respect of shares of a deceased Member where he was a sole or only surviving holder shall be the only person whom the Company will be bound to recognise as having any title to the shares registered in the name of such Member and the Company shall not be bound to recognise such executors or administrators unless such executors or such holder is the holder of a Succession Certificate or other legal Administration or as the case may be, from a duly constituted Court in India. Provided that, in any case where the Directors in their absolute discretion think fit, the Directors may dispense with production of Probate or Letters of Administration or succession Certificate or other legal representation and under the next Article, register the name of any person who claims to be absolutely entitled to the share standing in the name of a deceased Member as a Member.

Registration of persons entitled to shares otherwise than by transfer (Transmission Clause)

58. Any person becoming entitled to any shares in consequence of the death, lunacy, bankruptcy or insolvency of any Member or by any lawful means other than by a transfer in accordance with these presents, may, with the consent of the Directors (which they shall not be under any obligation to give) upon producing such evidence that he sustains the character in respect of which he proposes to act under this Article or of his title as the Directors shall require, either be registered as a Member in respect of such shares or may, subject to the regulations as to transfer in these presents contained, transfer such shares to some other person. This Article is in these presents referred to as "the Transmission Clause".

Refusal to register nominee

59. The Directors shall have the same right to refuse to register a person entitled by transmission to any shares or his nominee as if he were the transferee named in an ordinary transfer presented for registration.

Board may require evidence of transmission

60. Every transmission of a share shall be verified in such manner as the Directors may require and the Company may refuse to register any transmission until the same be so verified or until or unless an indemnity be given to the Company with regard to such registration which the Directors at their discretion shall consider sufficient, provided nevertheless that there shall not be any obligation on the Company or the Directors to accept any indemnity.

61. No fee shall be charged for transfer of shares/debentures or for effecting transmission or for registering any letters of probate, letters of administration and similar other documents.

Fee transfer or transmission

62. The Company shall incur no liability or responsibility whatever in consequence of their registering or giving effect to any transfer of shares made of purporting to be made by the apparent legal owner thereof (as shown or appearing in the Register of Members) to the prejudice of persons having or claiming any equitable right, title or interest to or in the same shares notwithstanding that the Company may have had notice of such equitable right, title or interest or notice prohibiting registration of such transfer, and may have entered such notice or referred thereto in any book of the Company and the Company shall not be bound or required to regard or attend or give effect to any notice which may be given to them of any equitable title or interest or be under any liability whatsoever for refusing or neglecting so to do though it may have been entered or referred in some book of the Company but the Company shall nevertheless be at liberty to regard and attend to any such notice and give effect thereto, if the Directors shall so think fit.

The Company not liable—for disregard of a notice

63. The provisions of these Articles shall mutatis mutandis, apply to the transfer of or the transmission by law of the right to Debentures of the Company.

Transfer of Debentures

CONVERSION OF SHARES INTO STOCK

64. The Directors, with the sanction of a resolution of the Company in General Meeting, may convert any paid up shares into stock and may convert any stock into paid up shares of any denomination. When any shares have been converted into stock, the several holders of such stock may henceforth transfer their respective interest therein or any part of such interests, in the same manner and subject to the same regulations as and subject to which fully paid up shares in the Company's capital may be transferred or as near thereto as circumstances will admit.

Conversion of Shares into stock
and reconversion

65. The stock shall confer on the holders thereof respectively the same privileges and advantages as regards participation in profits and voting at meetings of the Company and for other purposes as would have been conferred by shares of equal amount in the capital of the Company of the same class as the shares from which such stock is converted, but so that none of such privileges or advantages, except the participation in profits of the Company or in assets of the Company on a winding up, shall be conferred by any such shares aliquot part of stock as would not if existing in shares, have conferred such privileges or advantages. Such conversion shall not affect or prejudice any preference or other special privileges attached to the shares so converted. Save as aforesaid all the provisions herein contained shall, so far as circumstances shall admit, apply to stock as well as to shares.

Right of Stockholders

INCREASE, REDUCTION AND ALTERATION OF CAPITAL

Increase of capital

66. The Company may, from time to time, in General Meeting increase its share capital by the creation of new shares of such amount as it thinks expedient.

On what conditions new shares may be issued

67. The new shares (except such of them as shall be unclassified shares subject to the provision of Article 10) shall, subject to the provisions of the Act and these presents, be issued upon such terms and conditions and with such rights and privileges annexed thereto as by the General Meeting creating the same shall direct and if no direction be given, as the Directors shall determine and in particular such shares may be issued with a preferential or qualified rights to dividends and in distribution of assets of the Company and any preference shares may be issued on the terms that they are or at the option of the Company are to be liable to be redeemed.

Further issue of capital

68. The new shares (resulting from an increase of capital as aforesaid) may, subject to the provisions of the Act and these presents, be issued or disposed of by the Company in General Meeting or by the Directors under their powers in accordance with the provisions of Articles 8, 9, 10, 11 and the following provisions:-

- (A) (i) such new shares shall be offered to the persons who, at the date of the offer, are holders of the equity shares of the Company in proportion, as nearly as circumstances admit, the capital paid up on those shares at that date;
- (ii) the offer aforesaid shall be made by notice specifying the number of shares offered and limiting a time not being less than 15 days from the date of the offer, within which the offer, if not accepted, will be deemed to have been declined;
- (iii) the offer aforesaid shall be deemed to include a right exercisable by the persons concerned to renounce the shares offered to him or any of them in favour of any other person; and the notice referred to in sub-clause (i) shall contain a statement of this right;
- (iv) after the expiry of time specified in the notice aforesaid, or on receipt of earlier intimation from the person to whom such notice is given that he declines to accept the shares offered, the Board of Directors may dispose of them in such manner as they think most beneficial to the Company;
- (B) Nothing in clause (iii) of sub-article (A) shall be deemed:-
- (i) to extend the time within which the offer should be accepted; or
- (ii) to authorise any person to exercise the right of renunciation for a second time on the ground that the person in whose favour the renunciation was first made has declined to take the shares comprised in the renunciation.

Shares under control of General Meeting

69. In addition to and without derogating from the powers for the purpose conferred on the Directors under Article 8 the Company in General Meeting may in accordance with the provisions of Section 81 of the Act determine that any shares (whether forming part of the original capital of the Company or not) shall be offered to such persons (whether Members or holders of Debentures of the Company or not) in such proportion and on such terms and conditions and either at a premium or at par or (subject to compliance with the provisions of Section 79 of the Act) at a discount, as such General meeting shall determine.

70. Except so far as otherwise provided by the conditions of issue or by these presents any capital raised by the creation of new shares shall be considered part of the original capital and shall be subject to the provisions herein contained with reference to the payment of calls and instalments, transfer and transmissions, forfeiture, lien, surrender, voting and otherwise.

Same as original capital

71. On the issue of redeemable preference shares under the provisions of Articles 10 and 67 the following provisions shall take effect.

Provisions in case of redeemable preference shares

- (a) No such shares shall be redeemed except out of the profits of the Company which would otherwise be available for dividend or out of the proceeds of a fresh issue of shares made for the purposes of the redemption;
- (b) No such shares shall be redeemed unless they are fully paid up;
- (c) The premium, if any, payable on redemption shall have been provided for out of the profits of the Company or out of the Company's share premium account, before the shares are redeemed;
- (d) Where any such shares are redeemed otherwise than out of the proceeds of a fresh issue there shall out of profits which would otherwise have been available for dividend be transferred to a reserve fund to be called "the Capital Redemption Reserve Account", a sum equal to the nominal amount of the shares redeemed and the provisions of the Act relating to the reduction of the share capital of a company shall except as provided under Section 80 of the Act or by these presents apply as if the Capital Redemption Reserve Account were paid up share capital of the Company;
- (e) Subject to the provisions of Section 80 of the Act and this article the redemption of Preference Shares under these presents shall be effected in accordance with the terms and conditions of their issue and failing that in such manner as the Directors may think fit.

72. The Company may from time to time by Special Resolution reduce its share capital (including the Capital Redemption Reserve Account if any) in any way authorised by law and in particular may pay off any paid up share capital upon the footing that it may be called up again or otherwise and may and if and so far as necessary alter its Memorandum of Association by reducing the amount of its share capital and of its shares accordingly.

Reduction of capital

73. The Company may in General Meeting by Ordinary Resolution alter the conditions of its Memorandum as follows:-

Division and sub-division

- (a) Consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of larger amount than its existing shares.
- (b) Sub-divide shares or any of them into shares of smaller amount than originally fixed by the Memorandum of Association subject nevertheless to the provisions of the Act in that behalf. Subject to these presents the resolution by which any shares are sub-divided may determine that as between the holders of the shares resulting from such sub-division one or more of such shares may be given any preference or advantage or otherwise over the others or any other such shares.

- (c) Cancel shares which at the date of such General Meeting have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person and diminish the amount of the shares so cancelled.

MODIFICATION OF CLASS RIGHTS

Power to modify rights of different classes of shareholders and the rights of dissentient shareholders

74. (a) If at any time the share capital of the Company is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to the shares of any class may be varied with the consent in writing of the holders of not less than three-fourths of the issued shares of that class or with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a separate meeting of the holders of the issued shares of that class.

(b) This Article is not to derogate from any power the Company would have had if this Article were omitted and the right of the dissentient shareholders being holders of not less in the aggregate than 10 (ten) per cent of the issued shares of that class to apply to the Court to have the variations or modifications cancelled as provided in Section 107 of the Act.

JOINT HOLDERS

Joint holders

75. Where two or more persons are registered as the holders of any share the person first named in the Register shall be deemed the sole holder for matters connected with the Company subject to the following and other provisions contained in these Articles:

- (a) The Company shall be entitled to decline to register more than 4 persons as the joint holders of any share.
- (b) The joint holders of any share shall be liable severally as well as jointly for and in respect of all calls and other payments which ought to be made in respect of such share.
- (c) On the death of any such joint holders the survivor or survivors shall be the only person or persons recognised by the Company as having any title to the share but the Directors may require such evidence of death as they may deem fit and nothing herein contained shall be taken to release the estate of a deceased joint holder from any liability on shares held by him jointly with any other person.
- (d) Any one of such joint holders may give effectual receipts for any dividends or other moneys payable in respect of such share.
- (e) Only the person whose name stands first in the Register of Members as one of the joint holders of any share shall be entitled to delivery of the certificate relating to such share or to receive document (which expression shall be deemed to include all documents mentioned in Article 192) from the Company and any notice given to or document served on such person shall be deemed service on all the joint holders.

- (f) Any one of two or more joint holders may vote at any meeting either personally or by attorney or by proxy in respect of such shares as if he were solely entitled thereto and if more than one of such joint holders be present at any meeting personally or by proxy or by attorney then that one of such persons so present whose name stands first or higher (as the case may be) on the Register in respect of such share shall alone be entitled to vote in respect thereof but the other or others of the joint holders shall be entitled to be present at the meeting provided always that a joint holder present at any meeting personally shall be entitled to vote in preference to a joint holder present by attorney or by proxy although the name of such joint holder present by attorney or proxy stands first or higher (as the case may be) in the Register in respect of such shares. Several executors or administrators of a deceased Member in whose (deceased Member's) sole name any share stands shall for the purposes of this Clause be deemed joint holders.

BORROWING POWERS

76 Subject to the provisions of Sections 58A, 292 and 293 of the Act, the Board of Directors may, from time to time, by a resolution passed at a Meeting of the Board accept deposits, or borrow moneys from members, either in advance of calls or otherwise or accept deposits from public and may raise and secure the payment of such sum or sums in such manner and upon such terms and conditions in all respects as they think fit and in particular by the issue of bonds perpetual or redeemable debentures or debenture stock, or any mortgage or charge or other security on the undertaking or the whole or any part of the property of the company (both present and future) including its uncalled capital for the time being.

Conditions on which money may be borrowed

77. Any bonds, debentures, debenture stock or other securities issued or to be issued by the Company shall be under the control of the Directors who may issue them upon such terms and conditions and in such manner and for such consideration as they shall consider to be for the benefit of the Company.

Bonds, Debentures etc., to be subject to control of Directors.

78. Debentures, debentures stock, bonds or other securities may be made assignable free from any equities between the Company and the person to whom the same may be issued.

Securities may be assignable free from equities

79. Any bonds, debentures, debenture stock or other securities may be issued at a discount; premium or otherwise and with any special privileges as to redemption, surrender, drawing, allotment of share, attending at General Meetings of the company, appointment of Director and otherwise.

Issued at discount, etc. or with special privilege

"Debenture/Bonds, Debenture Stock Bonds or other securities with the right to conversion into or allotment of shares shall be issued only with the consent of the Company in General Meeting".

80. If any uncalled capital of the Company is included in or charged by any mortgage or other security the Directors may authorise the person in whose favour such mortgage or security is executed or any other person in trust for him to make calls on the Members in respect of such uncalled capital and the provisions hereinbefore contained in regard to calls shall mutatis mutandis apply to calls made under such authority and such authority may be made exercisable either conditionally or unconditionally and either presently or contingently and either to the exclusion of the Directors' power or otherwise and shall be assignable if expressed so to be.

Mortgage of uncalled capital

81. If the Directors or any of them or any other person shall become personally liable for the payment of any sum primarily due from the Company

Indemnity may be given the Directors may execute or cause to be executed any mortgage, charge or security over or affecting the whole or any part of the assets of the Company by way of indemnity to secure the Directors or person so becoming liable as aforesaid from any loss in respect of such liability.

Register of Charges to be kept

82. The Directors shall cause a proper register to be kept in accordance with the provisions of Section 143 of the Act of all mortgages, debentures and charges specifically affecting the property of the Company; and shall duly comply with the requirements of the said act in regard to registration of mortgages and charges and in regard to inspection to be given to creditors or Members of the Register of Charges and of copies of instruments creating charges. Such sum as may be prescribed by the Act shall be payable by any person other than a creditor or Member of the Company for each inspection of the Register of Charges.

MEETINGS

Annual General Meeting

83. (a) (i) The Company shall, in addition to any other meetings, hold a general meeting which shall be styled its "Annual General Meeting" at the intervals and in accordance with the provisions, specified below;

(ii) The first Annual General Meeting of the Company shall be held within eighteen months from the date of incorporation of the Company. The Annual General Meeting of the Company, subsequent to the First Annual General Meeting shall be held by the Company within six months after the expiry of the financial year in which the First Annual General Meeting was held; and thereafter an Annual General Meeting shall be held in each year by the Company within six months after the expiry of each financial year;

(iii) Not more than 15 months shall elapse between the date of one Annual General Meeting and that of the next;

(b) Every Annual General Meeting shall be called for a time during business hours, on a day that is not a public holiday, and shall be held either at the Registered Office of the Company or at some other place within the Union Territory of Delhi and the notices calling the meeting shall specify it as the Annual General Meeting.

Extra Ordinary
General Meetings

84. All General Meetings other than Annual General Meetings shall be called Extra-Ordinary General Meetings.

Calling of
Extra-Ordinary
General Meeting

85. (a) The Board of Directors may, whenever they think fit, and shall, on the requisition of such number of Members of the Company as is hereinafter specified, forthwith proceed to call an Extra-Ordinary General Meeting of the Company and in case of such requisition the following provisions shall apply;

(b) The requisition shall set out the matters for the consideration of which the meeting is to be called shall be signed by the requisitionists and shall be deposited at the Registered Office of the Company;

(c) The requisition may consist of several documents in like form, each signed by one or more requisitionists;

(d) The number of Members entitled to requisition a meeting in regard to any matter shall be such number of them as hold at the date of the deposit of the requisition, not less than one-tenth of such of the paid-up capital of the Company as at that date carries the right of voting in regard to that matter;

(e) Where two or more distinct matters are specified in the requisition, the provisions of sub-article (d) shall apply separately in regard to each such matter, and the requisition shall accordingly be valid only in respect of those matters in regard to which the condition specified in that sub-article is fulfilled;

(f) If the Board does not, within 21 days from the date of the deposit of a valid requisition in regard to any matters, proceed duly to call a meeting for the consideration of those matters on a day not later than 45 days from the date of the deposit of the requisition, the meeting may be called by such of the requisitionists as represent either majority in value of the paid up share capital held by all of them or not less than one-tenth of such of the paid up share capital of the Company as is referred to in sub-article (d) whichever is less. However, for the purpose of this sub-article the Directors shall, in the case of a meeting at which a resolution is to be proposed as a Special Resolution give, such notice thereof as is required by the Act;

(g) A meeting called under sub-article (f) by the requisitionist or any of them:-

- (i) shall be called in the same manner, as nearly as possible, as that in which meetings are to be called by the Board, but
- (ii) shall not be held after the expiration of 3 months from the date of the deposit of the requisition; Provided that nothing contained in this sub-clause (ii) shall be deemed to prevent a meeting duly commenced before the expiry of the period of 3 months aforesaid, from adjourning to some day after the expiry of that period;

(h) Where two or more persons hold any shares or interest in the Company jointly, a requisition, or a notice calling a meeting, signed by one or some only of them shall, for the purposes of this Article have same force and effect as if it had been signed by all of them;

(i) Any reasonable expenses incurred by the requisitionists by reason of the failure of the Board to call a meeting shall be reimbursed to the requisitionists by the Company; and any sum so reimbursed shall be retained by the Company out of any sums due or to become due from the Company by way of fees or other remuneration for their services to such of the Directors as were in default.

86. (a) A General Meeting of the Company may be called by giving not less than 21 days notice in writing;

Notice of Meeting

(b) A General Meeting may be called after giving shorter notice than that specified in sub-article (a) if consent is accorded thereto:-

(i) in the case of an Annual General Meeting by all the Members entitled to vote thereat, and

(ii) in the case of any other meeting by Members of the Company holding not less than 95 per cent of such part of the paid-up share capital of the Company as gives a right to vote at the meeting.

Provided that where any Members of the Company are entitled to vote only on some resolution or resolutions to be moved at a meeting and not on the others, those Members shall be taken into account for the purposes of this sub-article in respect of the former resolution or resolutions and not in respect of the latter.

Contents and manner of service of notice and persons on whom it is to be served

87. (a) Every notice of a meeting of the Company shall specify the place and the day and hour of the meeting, and shall contain a statement of the business to be transacted thereat;

(b) Notice of every meeting of the Company shall be given:

(i) to every Member of the Company, in any manner authorised by Section 53 of the Act;

(ii) to the persons entitled to a share in consequence of the death or insolvency of a Member by sending it through the post in a prepaid letter addressed to them by name, or by the title of representatives of the deceased, or assignees of the insolvent or by any like description, at the address, if any, in India supplied for the purpose by the persons claiming to be so entitled, or until such an address has been supplied, by giving the notice in any manner in which it might have been given if the death or insolvency had not occurred; and

(iii) to the Auditor or Auditors for the time being of the Company in any manner authorised by Section 53 of the Act in the case of any Member or Members of the Company.

Omission to give notice not to invalidate the proceedings at the meeting

(c) The accidental omission to give notice to, or the non-receipt of notice by, any member or other person to whom it should be given shall not invalidate the proceedings at the meeting.

Business at the Annual General Meeting

88. (a) In the case of an Annual General Meeting, all business to be transacted at the meeting shall be deemed special, with the exception of business relating to:-

(i) the consideration of accounts, Balance-Sheet and reports of the Board of Directors and Auditors;

(ii) the declaration of a dividend;

(iii) the appointment of Directors in the place of those retiring; and

(iv) the appointment of, and the fixing of remuneration of the Auditors; and

(b) in the case of any other meeting all business shall be deemed special.

(c) Where any items of business to be transacted at the meeting are deemed to be special as aforesaid, there shall be annexed to the notice of the meeting a statement setting out all material facts concerning each such item of business, including in particular the nature of the concern or interest, if any, therein, of every Director, and the Manager, if any.

Provided that where any item of special business as aforesaid to be transacted at a meeting of the Company relates to, or affects any other company, the extent of shareholding interest in that other company of every Director, and the Manager, if any, of the Company shall also be set out in the statement if the extent of such shareholding interest is not less than twenty per cent of the paid-up capital of that other company.

(d) Where any item of business consists of the according of approval to any document by the meeting, the time and place where the document can be inspected shall be specified in the statement aforesaid.

89. (1) A resolution shall be an Ordinary Resolution when at a General Meeting of which the notice required under the Act has been duly given, the votes cast (whether on a show of hands, or on a poll, as the case may be), in favour of the resolution (including the casting vote, if any, of the Chairman) by Members who, being entitled so to do, vote in person or where proxies are allowed, by proxy, exceed the votes, if any, cast against the resolution by Members so entitled and voting.

Ordinary and Special Resolutions

(2) A resolution shall be a Special Resolution when:-

- (a) the intention to propose the resolution as a Special Resolution has been duly specified in the notice calling the General Meeting or other intimation given to the Members of the resolution;
- (b) the notice required under the Act has been duly given of the General Meeting; and
- (c) the votes cast in favour of the resolution (whether on a show of hands, or on a poll, as the case may be), by Members who, being entitled so to do, vote in person, or where proxies are allowed, by proxy, are not less than 3 times the number of the votes, if any, cast against the resolution by Members so entitled and voting.

90. (1) Where, by any provisions contained in the Act or in these presents, Special Notice is required of any resolution, notice of the intention to move the resolution shall be given to the Company not less than 14 days before the meeting at which it is to be moved, exclusive of the day on which the notice is served or deemed to be served and the day of the meeting.

Resolutions
requiring Special
Notice

(2) The Company shall, immediately after the notice of the intention to move any such resolution has been received by it, give its members notice of the resolution in the same manner as it gives notice of the meeting, or if that is not practicable, shall give them notice thereof, either by advertisement in a newspaper having an appropriate circulation or in any other mode allowed by these presents, not less than seven days before the meeting.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETING

91. Five Members personally present shall be a quorum for a General Meeting and no business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless the requisite quorum be present at the commencement of the business.

Quorum at General
Meeting

Business confined to election of Chairman whilst chair vacant

92. No business shall be discussed at any General Meeting except the election of a Chairman whilst the Chair is vacant.

93. The Chairman of the Directors shall be entitled to take the Chair at every General Meeting. If there be no Chairman or if at any meeting he shall not be present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding such meeting, or is unwilling to act, the Directors present may choose one of their member to act as Chairman of the meeting and in default of their doing so, the Members present shall choose one of the Directors to take the Chair and if no Directors present be willing to take the Chair, the Members present shall choose one of their number to be the Chairman of the Meeting.

Proceeding when quorum not present

94. If within half an hour after the time appointed for the holding of a General Meeting a quorum be not present the meeting if convened on the requisition of shareholders shall be dissolved and in any other case shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place or to such other day and at such other time and place as the Directors may determine. If at such adjourned meeting also a quorum be not present within half an hour from the time appointed for holding the meeting the Members present shall be a quorum and may transact the business for which the meeting was called.

Adjourned meeting

95. The Chairman with the consent of the meeting may adjourn any meeting from time to time and from place to place; but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than business which might have been transacted at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. No notice of an adjourned meeting shall be necessary to be given unless the meeting is adjourned for more than 30 days.

What is to be evidence of the passing of resolution where poll not demanded

96. At any General Meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result on the show of hands) demanded in the manner hereinafter mentioned, and unless a poll is so demanded, a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has, on a show of hands, been carried, or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the book of the proceedings of the Company shall be conclusive evidence of the fact, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.

Demand for poll

97. (a) Before or on the declaration of the result of the voting on any resolution on a show of hands, a poll may be ordered to be taken by the Chairman of the meeting of his own motion, and shall be ordered to be taken by him on a demand made in that behalf by any Member or Members present in person or by proxy and holding shares in the Company which confer a power to vote on the resolution not being less than one-tenth of the total voting power in respect of the resolution or on which an aggregate sum of not less than fifty thousand rupees has been paid-up. The demand for a poll may be withdrawn at any time by the person or persons who make the demand.

(b) The demand for a poll may be withdrawn at any time by the person who made the demand.

Time of taking poll

98. (a) If a poll is demanded on the election of a Chairman or on a question of adjournment, it shall be taken forthwith and without adjournment.

(b) A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time not being later than 48 hours from the time when the demand was made, as the Chairman may direct.

99. On a poll taken at a meeting of the Company, a Member entitled to more than one vote, or his proxy or other person entitled to vote for him as the case may be, need not, if he votes, use all his votes or cast in the same way all the votes he uses.

Rights of Member to use his votes differently

100. (a) Where a poll is to be taken, the Chairman of the meeting shall appoint two scrutineers to scrutinise the votes given on the poll and to report thereon to him;

Scrutineers at poll

(b) The Chairman shall have power, at any time before the result of the poll is declared, to remove a scrutineer from office and to fill vacancies in the office of the scrutineer arising from such removal or from any other cause;

(c) Of the two scrutineers appointed under this Article, one shall always be a Member (not being an Officer or employee of the Company) present at the meeting, provided that such a Member is available and willing to be appointed.

101. (a) Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Chairman of the meeting shall have power to regulate the manner in which a poll shall be taken;

Manner of taking poll and result thereof

(b) The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the decision of the meeting on the resolution on which the poll was taken.

102. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the Chairman of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place or at which the poll is demanded, shall be entitled to a casting vote in addition to his own vote or votes to which he may be entitled as a Member.

Motion how decided in case of equality of votes

103. The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll has been demanded.

Demand for poll not to prevent transaction of other business

104. The Company shall cause minutes of all proceedings of General Meetings to be entered in books kept for that purpose. The minutes of each Meeting shall contain a fair and correct summary of the proceedings thereat. All appointments of officers made at any of the Meetings shall be included in the minutes of the Meetings. Any such minutes, if purporting to be signed by the Chairman of the Meeting at which the proceedings took place or in the event of the death or inability of that Chairman, by a Director duly authorised by the Board for the purpose, shall be evidence of the proceedings.

 - (c) Where within the 7 days aforesaid any further appeal or petition is preferred in respect of the adjudication, sentence, conviction or order and the appeal or petition, if allowed, would result in the removal of the disqualification, until such further appeal or petition is disposed of.

132. (a) Every Director of the Company who is in any way, whether directly or indirectly concerned or interested in a contract or arrangement, or proposed contract or arrangement entered into or to be entered into, by or on behalf of the Company, shall disclose the nature of his concern or interest at a meeting of the Board of Directors.

Disclosure of interest by Director

(b) (i) In the case of a proposed contract or arrangement the disclosure required to be made by a Director under sub-article (a) shall be made at the meeting of the Board at which the question of entering into the contract or arrangement is first taken into consideration, or if the Director was not at the date of that meeting, concerned or interested in the proposed contract or arrangement at the first meeting of the Board held after he becomes so concerned or interested;

(ii) In the case of any other contract or arrangement, the required disclosure shall be made at the first meeting of the Board held after the Director becomes concerned or interested in the contract or arrangement.

(c) (i) For the purpose of sub-articles (a) and (b), a general notice given to the Board by a Director, to the effect that he is a Director or a Member of a specified body corporate or is a Member of a specified firm and is to be regarded as concerned or interested in any contract or arrangement which may, after the date of the notice, be entered into with that body corporate or firm, shall be deemed to be a sufficient disclosure of concern or interest in relation to any contract or arrangement so made;

(ii) Any such general notice shall expire at the end of the financial year in which it is given, but may be renewed for further periods of one financial year at a time, by a fresh notice given in the last month of the financial year in which it would otherwise expire;

(iii) No such general notice, and no renewal thereof shall be of effect unless either it is given at a meeting of the Board, or the Director concerned takes reasonable steps to secure that it is brought up and read at the first meeting of the Board after it is given.

(d) Nothing in this Article shall be taken to prejudice the operation of any rule of law restricting a Director of the Company from having any concern or interest in any contracts or arrangements with the Company.

(e) Nothing in this Article shall apply to any contract or arrangement entered into or to be entered into between the Company and any other company where any of the Directors of the Company or two or more of them together holds or hold not more than 2 (two) per cent of the paid-up share capital in the other company.

Interested Director not to participate or vote in Board's proceedings

133. (1) No Director of the Company shall, as a Director, take any part in the discussion of, or vote on, any contract or arrangement entered into, or to be entered into, by or on behalf of the Company, if he is in any way, whether directly or indirectly, concerned or interested in the contract or arrangement; nor shall his presence count for the purpose of forming a quorum at the time of any such discussion or vote; and if he does vote, his vote shall be void.

(2) This Article shall not apply to:-

(a) any contract of indemnity against any loss which the Directors or any one or more of them may suffer by reason of becoming or being sureties or a surety for the Company;

(b) any contract or arrangement entered into or to be entered into with a public company, or a private company, which is a subsidiary of a public company, in which the interest of the Director aforesaid consists solely:-

(i) in his being a Director of such company and the holder of not more than shares of such number or value therein as is requisite to qualify him for appointment as a Director thereof, he having been nominated as such Director by the Company, or

- (ii) in his being a member holding not more than two per cent of the paid-up share capital of such other company.

134. A Director of this Company may be, or become a Director of any company promoted by this Company, or in which it may be interested as a vendor, member or otherwise and subject to the provisions of the Act and these presents no such Director shall be accountable for any benefits received as Director or member of such company.

Directors may be Directors of companies promoted by the Company

ROTATION OF DIRECTORS

135. At every Annual General Meeting of the Company other than the First Annual General Meeting one-third of such of the Directors for the time being as are liable to retire by rotation or, if their number is not 3 or a multiple of 3, then the number nearest to one-third shall retire from office.

Directors to retire annually how determined

136. The Directors to retire by rotation at every Annual General Meeting shall be those (other than the Nominee Directors and Debenture Director) who have been longest in office since their last appointment, but as between persons who became Directors on the same day those who are to retire shall (unless they otherwise agree among themselves) be determined by lot.

Which Directors to retire

137. A retiring Director shall be eligible for re-election.

Retiring Director eligible for re-election

138. The Company at the Annual General Meeting at which a Director retires in manner aforesaid may fill up the vacated office by appointing the retiring Director or some other person thereto.

Company to fill up vacancy

139. If the place of the retiring Director is not so filled up and the meeting has not expressly resolved not to fill the vacancy, the meeting shall stand adjourned till the same day in the next week, at the same time and place, or if that day is a public holiday, till the next succeeding day which is not a public holiday, at the same time and place, and if at the adjourned meeting also, the place of the retiring Director is not filled up and that meeting also has not expressly resolved not to fill the vacancy the retiring Director shall be deemed to have been re-appointed at the adjourned meeting, unless:-

Retiring Directors to remain in office till successors appointed

- (i) at that meeting or at the previous meeting a resolution for the re-appointment of such Director has been put to the meeting and lost;
- (ii) the retiring Director has, by a notice in writing addressed to the Company or its Board of Directors, expressed his unwillingness to be so re-appointed;
- (iii) he is not qualified or is disqualified for appointment;
- (iv) a resolution, whether Special or Ordinary, is required for his appointment by virtue of any provisions of the Act;
- (v) the proviso to sub-article (2) of Article 140 or sub-article (3) of Article 140 is applicable to the case.

Appointment of Directors to be voted on individually

140. (1) At every Annual General Meeting of the Company, a motion shall not be made for the appointment of two or more persons as Directors of the Company by a single resolution, unless a resolution that it shall be so made has first been agreed to by the meeting without any vote being given against it.

(2) A resolution moved in contravention of sub-article (1) of this Article shall be void whether or not objection was taken at the time to its being so moved; Provided that where a resolution so moved is passed, no provision for the automatic re-appointment of retiring Directors in default of another appointment shall apply.

(3) For the purposes of this Article, a motion for approving a person's appointment or for nominating a person for appointment shall be treated as a motion for his appointment.

Right of persons
other than retiring
Directors to stand for Directorship

141. (1) No person, not being a retiring Director, shall be eligible for election to the Office of Directors at any General Meeting, unless he or some other Member intending to propose him has, at least 14 clear days before the meeting, left at the Office a notice in writing under his hand signifying his candidature for the office of Director or the intention of such Member to propose him as a candidate for that office, as the case may be, along with a deposit of five hundred rupees which shall be refunded to such person or, as the case may be, to such Member, if the person succeeds in getting elected as a director.

(2) The Company shall inform its Members of the candidature of a person for the Office of Director or the intention of a Member to propose such person as a candidate for that office by serving individual notices on the Members not less than seven days before the Meeting. Provided that it shall not be necessary for the Company to serve individual notices upon the Members as aforesaid if the Company advertises such candidature or intention not less than seven days before the Meeting in at least two newspapers circulating in the place where the Registered Office of the Company is located, of which one is published in the English language and the other in the regional language of that place.

Removal of Directors

142. (a) The Company may by Ordinary Resolution remove a Director, (not being a Nominee Director or Debenture Director) before the expiry of his period of office;

(b) Special Notice shall be required of any resolution to remove a Director under this Article or to appoint somebody instead of a Director so removed at the meeting at which he is removed.

(c) On receipt of notice of a resolution to remove a Director under this Article, the Company shall forthwith send a copy thereof to the Director concerned, and the Director (whether or not he is a Member of the Company) shall be entitled to be heard on the resolution at the meeting.

(d) Where notice is given of a resolution to remove a Director under this Article and the Director concerned makes with respect thereto representations in writing to the Company (not exceeding a reasonable length) and requests their notification to Members of the Company, the Company shall, unless the representations are received by it too late for it to do so:-

- (i) in any notice of the resolution given to Members of the Company, state the fact of the representations having been made, and
- (ii) send a copy of the representations to every Member of the Company to whom notice of the meeting is sent (whether before or after receipt of the representations by the Company) and if a copy of the representations is not sent as aforesaid because they were received too late or because of the Company's default, the Director may (without prejudice to his right to be heard orally) require that the representations shall be read out at the meeting; Provided that, copies of the representations need not be sent out and the representations need not be read out at the meeting, if on the application either of the Company or of any other person who claims to be aggrieved, the Court is satisfied that the rights conferred by this sub-article are being abused to secure needless publicity for defamatory matter.
- (e) A vacancy created by the removal of a Director under this Article may, if he had been appointed by the Company in General Meeting or by the Board, be filled by the appointment of another Director in his stead, by the meeting at which he is removed, provided Special Notice of the intended appointment has been given under sub-article (b) of this Article. A Director so appointed shall hold office until the date up to which his predecessor would have held office if he had not been removed as aforesaid.
- (f) If the vacancy is not filled under sub-article (e) of this Article, it may be filled as a casual vacancy in accordance with the provisions so far as they may be applicable of Article 129 and all the provisions of that Article shall apply accordingly; Provided that the Director who was removed from office shall not be re-appointed as a Director by the Board of Directors.

PROCEEDINGS OF DIRECTORS

143. The Directors may meet together for the despatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings and proceedings as they think fit; Provided however that a meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held at least once in every 3 calendar months; and at least 4 such meetings shall be held in every calendar year.

Meeting of Directors

144. The Chairman may at any time and the Manager or such other Officer of the Company as may be authorised by the Directors shall upon the request of a Director convene a meeting of the Directors.

When meeting to be convened

145. Notice of every meeting of the Board of Directors of the Company shall be given in writing to every Director for the time being in India, and at his usual address in India to every other Director.

Notice of Meetings

146. The Directors may elect their Chairman and determine the period for which he is to hold office. All meetings of the Directors shall be presided over by such Chairman if present, but if at any meeting of Directors the Chairman be not present, at the time appointed for holding the same, then and in that case the Directors shall choose one of the Directors then present to preside at the meeting.

Chairman of Board of Directors

Question at Board meeting how decided

147. Questions arising at any meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes, and in case of an equality of votes, the Chairman of the meeting (whether the Chairman appointed by virtue of these presents or the Director presiding at such meeting) shall have a second or casting vote.

Quorum and its competence to exercise powers

148. The quorum for a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Company shall be one-third of its total strength (any fraction contained in that one-third being rounded off as one) or two Directors, whichever is higher; Provided that where at any meeting, the number of interested Directors exceeds or is equal to two-thirds of the total strength, the number of the remaining Directors, that is to say, the number of the Directors who are not interested, present at the meeting being not less than two, shall be the quorum during such time; and Provided Further that the aforesaid proviso shall not be applicable when any contract or arrangement is entered into by or on behalf of the Company with a Director or with any firm of which a Director is a Member or with any private company of which a Director is a Director or Member for —

(a) the underwriting or subscription of shares or debentures of the Company; or

(b) the purchase or sale of shares or debentures of any other Company; or

(c) a loan by the Company.

For the purpose of this Article:-

(i) "total strength" means the total strength of the Directors of the Company as determined in pursuance of the Act, after deducting therefrom the number of the Directors, if any, whose places may be vacant at the time;

(ii) "interested Director" means any Director whose presence cannot by reason of Article 133 or any other provisions in the Act count for the purpose of forming a quorum at a meeting of the Board, at the time of the discussion or vote on any matter.

Procedure where meeting adjourned for want of quorum

149. (a) If a meeting of the Board could not be held for want of quorum, then, unless the Directors present at such meeting otherwise decide, the meeting shall automatically stand adjourned till the same day in the next week, at the same time and place, or if that day is public holiday, till the next succeeding day which is not a public holiday at the same time and place.

(b) The provisions of Article 143 shall not be deemed to have been contravened merely by reason of the fact that a meeting of the Board which had been called in compliance with the terms of that Article could not be held for want of quorum.

Directors may appoint Committee

150. The Directors may subject to the provisions of the Act delegate any of their powers to Committees consisting of such member or members of their body as they think fit, and they may, from time to time, revoke such delegation. Any Committee so formed shall in the exercise of the powers so delegated, conform to any regulations that may, from time to time, be imposed on it by the Directors.

151. The meetings and proceedings of any such Committee shall be governed by the provisions of these presents for regulating the meetings and proceedings of the Directors, so far as the same are applicable thereto and are not superseded by any regulations made by the Directors under the last preceding Article.

Meetings of Committees how to be governed

152. All acts done by any meeting of the Board or of a Committee thereof or by any person acting as a Director, shall be valid notwithstanding that it may be afterwards discovered that the appointment of any one or more of such Directors or of any person acting as aforesaid, was invalid by reason of defect or disqualification or had terminated by virtue of any provision contained in the Act or these presents; Provided that nothing in this Article shall be deemed to give validity to acts done by a Director after his appointment has been shown to the Company to be invalid or to have terminated.

Acts of Board or Committees valid notwithstanding defect of appointment

153. No resolution shall be deemed to have been duly passed by the Board or by a Committee thereof by circulation, unless the resolution has been circulated in draft, together with the necessary papers, if any, to all the Directors, or to all the Members of the Committee, then in India (not being less in number than the quorum fixed for a meeting of the Board or Committee, as the case may be), and to all other Directors or Members, at their usual address in India and has been approved by such of the Directors as are then in India, or by a majority of such of them as are entitled to vote on the resolution.

Resolution by Circular

154. The Company shall cause minutes of Meetings of the Board of Directors and all Committees of the Board to be duly entered in a book or books provided for that purpose. The minutes shall contain :-

Minutes of proceedings of Directors and Committees

- a) a fair and correct summary of the proceedings at the Meeting;
- b) the names of the Directors present at the Meeting of the Board of Directors or of any Committee of the Board;
- c) all orders made by the Board and Committee of the Board and all appointments of Officers and Committees of Directors;
- d) all resolutions and proceedings of Meetings of the Board and the Committees of the Board; and
- e) in the case of each resolution passed at a Meeting of the Board or Committee of the Board, the names of the Directors, if any, dissenting from, or not concurring in, the resolution.

155. Any minutes of any Meeting of the Board or of any Committee of the Board, if purporting to be signed by the Chairman of such Meeting or by the Chairman of the next succeeding meeting shall for all purposes whatsoever be prima facie evidence of the actual passing of the resolutions recorded and the actual and regular transaction or occurrence of the proceedings so recorded and of the regularity of the meeting at which the same shall appear to have taken place.

By whom Minutes to be signed and the effect of such Minutes

156. The Directors shall comply with the provisions of Sections 159, 271, 282, 295, 297, 299, 303, 305, 307 and 308 of the Act.

Provisions of the Act to be complied with

POWERS OF DIRECTORS

MANAGING DIRECTOR

161. (a) Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Directors may, from time to time, appoint or re-appoint one or more of their body to be the Managing Director or Directors or the whole time Director or Directors of the Company for such term not exceeding five years and subject to such remuneration, terms and conditions as they may think fit. Managing Director

(b) Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Directors may, from time to time, entrust to and confer upon the Managing Director or the whole time Director, for the time being, such of the powers exercisable under these presents by the Directors as they may think fit, and may confer such powers for such time and to be exercised for such objects and purposes and upon such terms and conditions, and with such restrictions as they think expedient, and they may confer such powers, either collaterally with or to the exclusion of and in substitution for, all or any of the powers of the Directors, in that behalf, and may, from time to time, revoke, withdraw, alter or vary all or any of such powers.

(c) Subject to the provisions of the Act, Managing Director, Whole time Director shall not, while he continues to hold that office, be subject to retirement by rotation under Article 135. If he ceases to hold the office of a Director for any cause whatsoever he shall ipso facto and immediately cease to be the Managing/Whole time Director.

THESEAL

162. The Directors shall provide a Common Seal for the purpose of the Company, and shall have power, from time to time, to destroy the same and substitute a new seal in lieu thereof, and the Directors shall provide for the safe custody of the Seal for the time being, and the Seal shall never be used except by or under the authority of the Directors or a Committee of Directors and in the presence of one Director at the least, who shall sign every instrument to which the Seal is affixed: Provided that certificates of shares may be under the signatures of such persons as provided by the Companies (Issue of Share Certificates) Rules 1960 in force from time to time. Save as otherwise expressly provided by the Act a document or proceeding requiring authentication by the Company may be signed by a Director, or the Secretary or any other officer authorised in that behalf by the Board and need not be under its Seal. The Seal, its custody and use

Seal abroad

163. The Company may exercise the powers conferred by Section 50 of the Act and such powers shall accordingly be vested in the Directors.

DIVIDENDS

Division of profits

164. The profits of the Company subject to any special rights relating thereto created or authorised to be created by the Memorandum or these presents and subject to the provisions of the Act, and these presents shall be divisible among the Members in proportion to the amount of capital paid up on the shares held by them respectively.

Capital paid up in advance at interest not to earn dividend

165. Where capital is paid up in advances of calls upon the footing that the same shall carry interest such capital shall not, whilst carrying interest, confer a right (to dividend or) to participate in profits.

Dividends in proportion to amount paid up

166. The Company may pay dividends in proportion to the amount paid up or credited as paid up on each share, where a larger amount is paid up or credited as paid up on some shares than on others.

The Company in General Meeting may declare a dividend

167. The Company in General Meeting may declare a dividend to be paid to the Members according to their respective rights and interests in the profits and may fix the time for payment.

No large dividend than recommended by Directors, etc.

168. No larger dividend shall be declared than is recommended by the Directors but the Company in General Meeting may declare a smaller dividend, subject to the provisions of Section 205 of the Act, and no dividend shall carry interest as against the Company. The declaration of the Directors as to the amount of the net profits of the Company shall be conclusive.

Interim dividend

169. The Directors may, from time to time, pay to the Members such interim dividends as in their judgement the position of the Company justifies.

Retention of dividends until completion of transfer under Article 58.

170. The Directors may retain the dividends payable upon shares in respect of which any person is, under Article 58 hereof, entitled to become a Member or which any person under that Article is entitled to transfer until such person shall become a Member in respect of such shares or shall duly transfer the same.

No Member to receive dividend whilst indebted to the Company and Company's right of reimbursement thereout.

171. Subject to the provisions of the Act, no Member shall be entitled to receive payment of any interest or dividend in respect of his share or shares whilst any money may be due or owing from him to the Company in respect of such share or shares or otherwise howsoever either alone or jointly with any other person or persons and the Directors may deduct from the interest or dividend payable to any Member all sums of money so due from him to the Company.

Transfers of shares must be registered

172. A transfer of shares shall not pass the right to any dividend declared thereon before the registration of the transfer.

Dividends how remitted

173. Unless otherwise directed any dividend may be paid by cheque or warrant sent through the post to the registered address of the Member or person entitled or in case of joint holders to that one of them first named in the Register in respect of the joint holding. Every such cheque shall be made payable to the order of the person to whom it is sent. The Company shall not be liable or responsible for any cheque or warrant lost in transmission or for any dividend lost to the Member or person entitled thereto by the forged endorsement of any cheque or warrant or the fraudulent or improper recovery thereof by any other means.

174 (a) If the Company has declared a dividend but which has not been paid or claimed within 42 days from the date of declaration to any shareholder entitled to the payment of the dividend, the company shall within 7 days from the date of expiry of the said period of 42 days, open a special account in that behalf in any Scheduled Bank called "the unpaid dividend account of Tourism Finance Corporation of India Limited" and deposit the amount of such unpaid or unclaimed dividend in the said account.

Unclaimed dividends

(b) Any money transferred to the unpaid dividend account of the Company which remains unpaid or unclaimed for a period of three years from the date of such transfer, shall be transferred by the Company to the general revenue account of the Central Government. A Claim to any money so transferred to the general revenue account may be referred to the Central Government by the Shareholders to whom the money is due. No unclaimed dividend shall be forfeited till the claim thereto becomes barred by law.

175. Any General Meeting declaring a dividend may make a call on the Members in respect of moneys unpaid on shares for such amount as the meeting fixes but so that the call on each Member shall not exceed the dividend payable to him and so that the call be made payable at the same time as the dividend, and the dividend may, if so arranged between the Company and the Members, be set off against the call.

Dividends and call together

176. No dividend shall be payable except in cash : Provided that nothing in this Article shall be deemed to prohibit the capitalisation of profits or reserves of the Company for the purpose of issuing fully paid up bonus shares or paying up any amount for the time being unpaid on any shares held by the Members of the Company.

Special Provision in reference to dividend

"No unclaimed dividends shall be forfeited by the Board and the Company shall comply with the provisions of Section 205A of the Companies Act in respect of such dividends ."

CAPITALISATION

177. Any General Meeting may resolve that any moneys investments or other assets forming part of the undivided profits (including profits or surplus moneys arising from the realization and [where permitted by law] from the appreciation in value of any capital assets of the Company) standing to the credit of the Reserve or Reserve Fund or any other Fund of the Company or in the hands of the Company and available for dividend or representing premiums received on the issue of shares and standing to the credit of the share premium account be capitalised:-

Capitalisation

- (1) by the issue and distribution as fully paid up shares, debentures, debenture-stock, bonds or other obligations of the Company, or
- (2) by crediting shares of the Company which may have been issued to and are not fully paid up, with the whole or any part of sum remaining unpaid thereon.

Such issue and distribution under (1) above and such payment to the credit of unpaid share capital under (2) above shall be made to, among and in favour of the Members or any class of them or any of them entitled thereto and in accordance with their respective rights and interests and in proportion to the amount of capital paid up on the shares held by them respectively in respect of which such distribution under (1) or payment under (2) above shall be made on the footing that such Members become entitled thereto as capital.

The Directors shall give effect to any such resolution and apply such portion of the profits or Reserve or Reserve Fund or any other Fund on account as aforesaid and may be required for the purpose of making payment in full for the shares, debentures or debenture-stock, bonds or other obligations of the Company so distributed under (1) above or (as the case may be) for the purpose of paying, in whole or in part, the amount remaining unpaid on the shares which may have been issued and are not fully paid up under (2) above: Provided that no such distribution or payment shall be made unless recommended by the Directors and if so recommended such distribution and payment shall be accepted by such Members as aforesaid in full satisfaction of their interest in the said capitalised sum. For the purpose of giving effect to any such resolution the Directors may settle any difficulty which may arise in regard to the distribution or payment as aforesaid as they think expedient and in particular they may issue fractional certificates and may fix the value for distribution of any specific assets and may determine that cash payments be made to any Members on the footing of the value so fixed and may vest any such cash, shares, debentures, debenture-stock, bonds or other obligations in trustees upon such trusts for the persons entitled thereto as may seem expedient to the Directors and generally may make such arrangements for the acceptance, allotment and sale of such shares, debentures, debenture-stock, bonds or other obligations and fractional certificates or otherwise as they may think fit. Subject to the provisions of the Act and these presents, in cases where some of the shares of the Company are fully paid up and others are partly paid up only such capitalisation may be effected by the distribution of further shares in respect of the fully paid up shares, and by crediting the partly paid up shares with the whole or part of the unpaid liability thereon but so that as between the holders of the fully paid up shares, and the partly paid up shares the sums so applied in the payment of such further shares and in the extinguishment or diminution of the liability on the partly paid up shares shall be so applied pro rata in proportion to the amount then already paid or credited as paid on the existing fully paid up and partly paid up shares respectively. When deemed requisite a proper contract shall be filed in accordance with the Act and the Board may appoint any person to sign such contract on behalf of the holders of the shares of the Company which shall have been issued prior to such capitalisation and such appointment shall be effective.

ACCOUNTS

Accounts

178. The Directors shall cause true accounts to be kept of (a) all sums of money received and expended by the Company and the matters in respect of which such receipt and expenditure take place (b) all sales and purchases of goods by the Company and (c) the assets, credits and liabilities of the Company, and of all its commercial, financial and other affairs, transactions and engagements and of all other matters, necessary for showing the true financial state and condition of the Company, and the accounts shall be kept in English in such manner as the Directors may deem fit; and the books of accounts shall be kept at the Office or such other place or places in India as the Directors think fit, and shall be open to inspection by the Directors during business hours.

Inspection by Members of accounts and books of the Company

180. Once at least in every calendar year the Directors shall lay before the Company in Annual General Meeting a Profit and Loss Account for the period since the preceding account and a Balance Sheet containing a summary of the property and liabilities of the Company made up to a date not more than 6 months before the meeting or in case where an extension of time has been granted for holding the meeting upto such extended time and every such Balance Sheet shall as required by Section 217 of the Act, be accompanied by a Report (to be attached thereto) of the Directors as to the state and condition of the Company, and as to the amount (if any) which they recommend to be paid out of the profits by way of dividends and the amount (if any) set aside by them for the Reserve Fund, General Reserve or Reserve Account shown specifically in the Balance Sheet or to be shown specifically in a subsequent Balance Sheet.

Statement of Accounts and Report to be furnished to General Meeting, Balance Sheet to be served on every Member

181. Every Balance Sheet and Profit and Loss Account of the Company shall give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Company and shall, subject to the provisions of Section 211 of the Act, be in the Forms set out in Part I and II respectively of Schedule VI of the Act, or as near thereto as circumstances admit.

Form and contents of Balance Sheet and Profit and Loss Account

182. The Balance Sheet and the Profit and Loss Account shall be signed by 2 Directors or when only one Director is for the time being in India by such Director and by the Manager or Secretary. The Balance Sheet and the Profit and Loss Account shall be approved by the Board of Directors before they are signed on behalf of the Board in accordance with the provisions of this Article and before they are submitted to the Auditors for their report thereon. The Auditors' Report shall be attached to the Balance Sheet and the Profit and Loss Account or there shall be inserted at the foot of the Balance Sheet and Profit and Loss Account a reference to the Report. A copy of such Balance Sheet and the Profit and Loss Account so audited together with a copy of the Auditor's Report shall, at least 21 days before the meeting at which the same are to be laid before the Members of the Company, subject to the provisions of Section 219 of the Act, be sent to every Member of the Company and every debenture-holder of whose address the Company is aware and a copy of the same shall be deposited at the Office for inspection by the Member of the Company during a period of at least 21 days before that meeting.

Authentication of Balance Sheet and other documents — Copies thereof to be sent to Members

183. After the Balance Sheet and Profit and Loss Account have been laid before the Company at a General Meeting, 3 copies thereof signed by the Manager or Secretary or as required by Section 220 of the Act shall be filed with the Registrar together with the requisite Returns in accordance with the requirements of Sections 159 and 161 of the Act.

Copies of Balance Sheet and Profit and Loss Account of the Company and Auditors Report shall be filed with the Registrar of Companies.

AUDIT

184. Once at least in every year the accounts of the Company shall be balanced and audited and the correctness of the Profit and Loss Account and Balance Sheet ascertained by one or more Auditor or Auditors.

Accounts to be audited
